SOUNDS EASY, BUT--

"Piano technic is one of the SIMPLE things. It consists only of putting the right finger in the right place, at the right time, in the right manner, for the right duration. Just that, nothing more."—The Rude.

Simple, yes! But can you imagine your father or your husband doing it? It is one of those "SIMPLE" things that requires years of hard, persevering practice, unlimited patience, and the expenditure of much money, to become proficient. The average man hasn't the time nor the patience to learn to play the piano, yet he enjoys music, and would enjoy it still more if he could produce it himself. The invention of the FARRAND-CRILLIAN PIANO has made it possible for the person who knows nothing of "technic," who has no musical knowledge, to play any music on the piano. You are cordially invited to visit our warerooms, and see, and hear, and try this wonderful Piano for yourself. Price $500. Easy monthly payments if you wish, and your old piano taken in exchange at its full value.

J. BACON & SONS

ESTABLISHED IN 1845.

MARKET STREET BET. THIRD AND FOURTH.

NOTED ORATOR

Will Lecture Under Auspices of the Knights of Columbus.

"The White Shepherd of Christendom" will be the subject of the lecture to be delivered at Macaulay's Theater at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening by the Rev. Father John Cavanaugh, President of Notre Dame University. This distinguished scholar and orator comes to Louisville as the guest of the Knights of Columbus, and the lecture will be given under their auspices. No admission fee will be charged and friends of the Knights are cordially invited to attend.

During the last five or six years Louisville Council has had many distinguished scholars lecture before it and each succeeding event increased the attendance so much that the council chamber has been overtaxed. Hence it was deemed advisable to secure Macaulay's Theater for tomorrow night's event.

Father Cavanaugh has a national reputation as a student and lecturer and the subject he has chosen for tomorrow night promises to be instructive and entertaining.

DREAD DISEASE

Threatens the Life of a Beloved Young Priest of This Diocese.

It will be distressing news to many friends to learn that the Rev. Father John J. McLoughlin is hopelessly ill of locomotor ataxia at St. Anthony's Hospital. Father McLoughlin was first attacked by this dread disease four years ago, after a spell of typhoid fever. He had occasional temporary spells of relief, but each new attack left him worse than before. One of his brothers, now a resident of St. Louis, is at his bedside, but the attending physicians are holding out no hope.

The sick priest is a native of Scranton, Pa., where he was born thirty-six years ago. He became a priest in 1898 and since then has been located in this diocese. For a brief period he was assistant to the Very Rev. Father Bax at St. John's church. Later he was transferred to the Cathedral and then to Holy Cross church, Union county. His last mission, a temporary one, was assistant to the Rev. Father Denis Murphy at St. William's church. He has four brothers in business in Scranton.

MANY THINGS

Are in Prospect For Trinity Council During the Spring.

The meeting of Trinity Council, Y. M. C., on Monday night was well attended and President Martin took occasion to congratulate the members for their faithfulness despite the inclemency of the weather. Five applications were received and one new member was obligated. S. Parnell Barrett, David Garvey, John Voll and W. N. Gast were reported on the sick list.

President Martin announced that the annual banquet in honor of the members and their lady friends would be given on the night of May 3. The dancing committee reported that Masonic Temple hall had been engaged for a dance on the evening of May 26.

Reports also showed that over 200 members of the council approached holy communion at St. Aloysius' church last Sunday morning.

DEVOUT AND ZEALOUS.

The Rev. Father Thomas York, pastor of St. Paul's church, is well pleased with the zeal and devotion displayed by his people during the present holy season. Every devotion is well attended and he preaches four times each week to a crowded church. He delivers a sermon at the early and late mass on Sundays; a dogmatic sermon on Tuesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock, and after the stations of the way of the cross on Friday he gives instructions on the Passion of Christ. The recital of the rosary and benediction of the blessed sacrament conclude the evening exercises. The members of the congregation have been as liberal in their contributions toward the church as they have been zealous in their attendance.

RECENT DEATHS.

Edward P. Flynn died suddenly at the home of his sister, Miss Margaret Flynn, 941 Ballard street, on Saturday. The deceased was well and favorably known in the East End. The funeral took place from St. John's church on Monday morning.

The funeral of Henry Curry, who died at his home, 1519 New Main street, on Friday, took place from the Church of St. Francis of Rome on Sunday afternoon. The deceased was seventy-seven years old and is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ann Curry.

The funeral of Mrs. Eunnet A. Thomas, who died at her home, 1515 Story avenue, took place from St. Joseph's church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The deceased was thirty-six years of age and is survived by a husband and six children. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Hannah W. Fagan, of New Albany.

Mrs. Stella Hans, one of the most popular young matrons in the East End, died at her home, 636 East Ormsby avenue, on Saturday. The funeral took place from St. Vincent de Paul's church on Monday morning. The deceased is survived by her husband, Charles H. Hans. Previous to her marriage she was Miss Stella Oehler.

Great regret has been expressed by a wide circle of friends over the death of Miss Margaret Doak, which occurred at the home of Miss Margaret Teupe, 719 East Gray street, on Friday night of last week. The deceased had been noted as a worker in church and charitable organizations for many years. Her funeral took place from St. John's church on Monday morning.

The remains of Mrs. Catherine Kellond, who died at Raleigh, N. C., on Monday of last week, were brought to this city and taken to the home of her niece, Mrs. C. J. Baker, at Sixth street and the Southern railroad crossing. The funeral, which was private, took place from Holy Name church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The deceased was the wife of J. H. Kellond and the daughter of the late John McDonald.

Mrs. Mary Leewe, twenty-eight years old, died at her residence, 817 1/2 Cawthon street, on Sunday morning, after a long illness of lung trouble. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Mary McCabe. She was twenty-eight years old and is survived by her husband, Frank A. Leewe, an engraver for the Tinsley-Mayer Engraving Company, and by a small son. The funeral took place from St. Louis Bertrand's church on Tuesday morning.

READY FOR EASTER.

The Big Store has received a new and complete line of Easter and confirmation suits for boys, and asks fathers and mothers of boys who will receive that sacrament this year to call and inspect their goods before making any purchases.

TOM HART HURT.

Tom Hart, driver of the No. 1 reel and one of the best known men in the fire department, was thrown from his seat and painfully injured while returning from an alarm of fire on Wednesday. The accident occurred at Clay and Main streets, where Hart had caused his horse to swerve suddenly to avoid running over a woman. His injuries while painful are not necessarily dangerous.

PAINFUL INJURIES.

Engineer James W. Noonan Sustains Broken Arm in Accident.

James W. Noonan, engineer at the Girls' High School, while cleaning the machinery on Monday morning was caught by the belt from the large fly wheel and thrown ten feet, only his presence of mind saving him from instant death. In falling he sustained a compound fracture of the left fore-arm and several painful cuts and bruises about the head and body. Despite his injuries Mr. Noonan visited a physician and had the fracture reduced before repairing to his home at 1529 Preston street, where he collapsed from the pain and shock incident to the accident.

During the twenty years that Engineer Noonan has been connected with the old and new Girls' High School buildings he never before met with an accident. He is a splendid mechanic and a careful engineer. His many friends hope that he will be able to resume his duties in the immediate future.

REMEMBERS POOR.

Beloved Boston Priest Bequeathed a Fortune to Charity.

The Rev. Father Patrick J. Daly, one of the best beloved priests in Boston, who died recently, left $50,000 to Boston Catholic charities and residuary legacies of an unknown amount to his brothers and sisters.

To the Daly Industrial School, which the testator founded several years ago, he left a trust fund of $25,000, the income of which is to be devoted to current expenses of that institution. To the poor of the parish of St. Francis de Sales church, of which he had been pastor during the past eighteen years, he left $3,000. This is left in care of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Father Daly also left $7,500 to St. John's Seminary and $1,000 to each of the following institutions: The Home for Destitute Catholic Children, St. Mary's Infant Asylum, the Working Boys' Home and the House of the Good Shepherd, all of Boston, and to the All Hallows College, Dublin, Ireland. He also left $10,000 to be expended on the education of his two younger brothers.

LAETARE MEDAL.

Dr. Francis J. Quinlan Honored by University of Notre Dame.

Dr. Francis J. Quinlan, a prominent physician and philanthropist of New York City, has been awarded the Laetare medal this year by the authorities of Notre Dame University. The Laetare medal is an honor awarded one distinguished Catholic layman every year.

Dr. Quinlan is one of New York's most prominent physicians and holds the chair of laryngology in the New York Polytechnic. He is also President of the New York County Medical Association and has written many articles for medical literature. Besides this he is President of the Catholic Society of New York, an organization which embraces in its membership most of the prominent Catholics of the East.

SAD INTELLIGENCE.

James Landers, of 1113 East Main street, received a letter from Ireland Monday bearing the sad intelligence that his wife's brother, Thomas Durnin, of Togher, Dunlerr, County Louth, was found drowned in the river there on March 11. The deceased left home a month before to work for a neighboring farmer. Nothing more was seen or heard of him until the body was found. There were no marks of violence found on the body, and as Mr. Durnin was a sober, steady and religious man, his friends are at a loss to account for his death. The deceased was sixty-nine years old and leaves a wife and six small children in very destitute circumstances. Besides Mrs. Landers, the deceased leaves a brother, Patrick Durnin, in Britt, Iowa.
